THE PECULIAR TROXLER CASE.

The ruling off of the little jockey Roscoe Troxler at New Orleans was apparently deserved, but for all that it seems a regrettable ending of a recently begun career that might have been a brilliant one. It is equally to be regretted that those who caused the boy to commit his flagrant violation of the laws of racing appear likely to escape detection and punishment. It is not reasonable to suppose that the boy acted for himself. Older and guiltier parties prompted him. Their detection and punishment would serve the American turf in a broad and healthy way. It was a very peculiar case all around. The statement of the stewards is here presented as a part of the record of a case that should be investigated to the end:

"We submit the result of the investigation of the charges preferred against Jockey Troxler as to his actions in the Lexington Stakes Wednesday, March 8. O'Connor on Alex and Troxler on Frelinghuysen had the outside position off to a good start. O'Connor states that Troxler at once reached and caught hold of his leg, and, drawing alongside, caught hold of the bridle of his horse and continued pulling and crowding him to the outside on the turn, and using every effort apparently to stop his horse; that he in turn tried to push him away repeatedly, asking him what he was trying to do, but that he paid no attention to him whatever.

"The starter, C. J. Fitzgerald, states that in all of his racing experience he never saw a more deliberate or outrageous piece of riding than was exhibited by Jockey Troxler, and he corroborates the statement of Jockey O'Connor (excepting as to his catching hold of the bridle, as Troxler was crowding him so that from his position he could not see the act.) Arthur McKnight, assistant starter; Frank Owens, track flagman, and Harry White, the time flagman, corroborate the statement of Jockey O'Connor in every particular. Mr. Voss, patrol judge on the turn, also corroborated the charges in detail excepting that he thought Troxler had hold of O'Connor's saddle. In explanation of the charges Troxler admits he did catch hold of the bridle of Alex, as charged, but that he did not do so until after O'Connor had attempted to catch hold of the bridle of his horse.

"On February 8 Troxler rode a bad-looking race on Ben Ronald, who was a pronounced favorite. He rode the horse contrary to instructions of the owner, and it is now recalled in explanation of the charge and his riding that he claimed he was unable to control or place the horse in the race. While we differ with him as to his efforts at the time when his horse was running fifteen or twenty lengths in front, owing to the reputation of the boy and after having questioned him closely as to whether or not any one had spoken to him regarding the way he should ride the horse, we thought it advisable to give him every consideration. We are now satisfied his riding is not above suspicion in that race, and was for a purpose.

"As to Dr. Riddle, he has shown to be a good colt, and at the weights had a legitimate right to be a factor in the betting. The fact is established beyond any doubt whatever that Troxler deliberately and purposely rode as described; that his every act was criminal, and that he persisted seemingly until he had destroyed all possible chance that Alex had of winning.

"It was a way of taking care of the favorite to a certainty, and in our opinion justifies the most extreme punishment, in accordance with the rules. Jockey R. Troxler is ruled off the turf. J. Troxler, agent and manager, is suspended from all privileges indefinitely, and if we are enabled to connect him with the matter later this ruling is to apply to him as well.

"Frelinghuysen is disqualified from third money in the stakes, by order of the board of stewards."

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Certain owners of certain horses are in a predicament that has a touch of the amusing to people who are familiar with the lights and shadows of the seamy side of the turf. The case is thus defined in the San Francisco Examiner of last Monday:

"Three horses, barred by the Oakland judges, are entered today at Ingleside, Personne, Cromwell and Don Luis have been barred from the privileges across the bay, and are in the same list with Myth, Hugh Penny and a few other acrobatic performers. The two last-named have done no more to offend the Ingleside judges than the three horses in the list of entries today, but they cannot race on this side because the judges on the other side have asked that their entry be refused. The owners of the horses barred from one track are probably taking a chance to run on the other and are wisely holding a silent tongue until told their equines are not wanted. In the meantime the people in control of Myth and Hugh Penny are scurrying about trying to learn why their horses are not allowed the same privilege as other horses punished for in-and-out running across the bay."

If the horsemen of Pennsylvania and Illinois want equitable racing laws they must be up and doing. Both states have for years been persecuted by two elements equally bad, the Puritanical zealot, who wants to stop all honest sport, and the gambling freebooter, who wants to race all the time. As a result high-class sport has almost become a thing of the past. The Washington Park Club, the greatest racing organization in the west, closed its gates for several years, while the big trotting meetings at Philadelphia and Chicago have ceased to exist. Unfortunately the laws in both state have utterly failed in their purpose, as outside of Philadelphia and Chicago, public sentiment has been so strongly opposed to their enforcement, that they have been continually violated. The result has been to close up the gates of responsible associations where the public were fully protected and where clean, honest sport was guaranteed, while outlaw organizations flourished. The racing laws now before both legislatures for consideration will remedy this unhealthy state of affairs. In both cases winter racing is prohibited, the length of meetings is defined, pool-selling is prohibited except at race meetings on events then in progress. That most pernicious of all modern gambling inventions, the foreign book, will not be permitted and in Illinois there is a revenue feature of five per cent. on the gate receipts which goes to the state. Every breeder in the two states should support these bills. Every racing and trotting association should through its officers give their active support. The leading business men of Philadelphia and Chicago should make their influence felt to place two laws on the statute books which can be enforced and which will at the same time encourage the great breeding interests of the two states.—Spirit of the Times.

For the meeting of the country Club to be held at Brookline, Mass., May 27-30, some fat events are offered for the jumpers. Preliminary entries close Wednesday, March 15, to the following events: Country Club Steeplechase, purse $1,000, about two miles and a half; Myopia Steeplechase, purse $750, for hunters registered under the National Steeplechase and Hunt Association Rules, about two and one-half miles, and hurdle race, purse $500, one and one-half miles, over six hurdles; The Duke's Cup, $1,000, handicap steeplechase, with purse of $1,200 added, about two and one-half miles; Challenge Cup (value $250), purse, $750 added, about two and one-half miles, and hurdle race, purse $500, one and three-quarter miles, over seven hurdles. All entries should be addressed to G. T. Dexter, Clerk of the Course, Brookline, Mass.

King Barleycorn's good race at New Orleans yesterday will serve to make him one of the favorites for the Crescent City Derby. It is worth noting that Mr. Vosburg has handicapped this colt to be within five pounds of Jean Beraud in the assignment of weights for the Metropolitan Handicap at Morris Park, and sets him to give weight to such good ones as Heliobas, Cormorant, Filigrane, Frohsinn, Formero, Black Venus, Dr. Eichberg, Mr. Clay, Toluca and McLeod of Dare. Only Jean Beraud, Autumn, Ethelbert, Kingdon, W. Overton and Alpen, of his own age, are handicapped above him.

Of an incident of Thursday's racing at New Orleans, the Picayune says: "In the first race E. Bertonnieri & Co. claimed Guide Rock for $650, but subsequently returned him to his owner, J. W. Johnson. The latter positively declined to give up the horse, saying he was willing to take the consequences, even if they were a ruling off, for he said: 'I would be happier ruled off with the horse than in good standing without him.' The claimants were evidently touched by the old man's devotion and his gray hairs and agreed to forego their claim."

A project to construct in Jacksonville, Fla., a first class mile track is under discussion, and C. H. Howard, W. B. Owen and J. S. Smith have been appointed a committee to secure the names and addresses of breeders and owners of running and trotting and pacing horses. In a letter to us Mr. Howard says: "It is our intention to have quite an extended meeting for the winter months, during the season in the south when it is impossible to work horses on northern tracks." The club will organize with a capital stock of $100,000.—Turf, Field and Farm.

The dates for running off the stakes at Aqueduct are as follows: Carter Handicap, April 17; Rose Stakes, April 20; Arverne Stakes, April 22; Canarsie Stakes, April 25; Ozone Stakes, April 27; Rockaway Stakes, April 29; Jamaica Stakes, May 2; Flushing Stakes, May 4. Owing to the large entry list in the Carter Handicap Superintendent Tucker talks of widening the track at the seven-furlong pole, so as to permit twenty horses or more to start.

Garner & Slaughter are among the late arrivals at Little Rock. They brought in a string of seven from Dallas. They are: The Trimmer, 3; J. E. Cline, 3; Gustave Cook, 6; Chang, 4; Etholin, 4; Banana, 3, and Sylvain, a 2-year-old by Wadsworth.

NEW RECORD FOR INGLESIDE.

Last year the Crocker-Woolworth Bank Stakes, won yesterday at Ingleside by The Bachelor, was a dash of two miles and was won by Joe Ullman in 2:29. For this year the route was lengthened to the old-fashioned cup distance of two and one-quarter miles. It was the first race at the distance ever run over the Ingleside track, and the time, 4:04, is consequently a track record.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The ten-year-old brown horse, Kilkenny, by Darebin-Katrine, formerly the property of "Lucky" Baldwin, "Mr. Chamblett," and more recently owned by George R. Wales, was destroyed a short while ago. Kilkenny was speedy on the flat and showed several excellent performances over the jumps while the property of Boston's best known turfman.

T. H. Ryan has shipped Dunois, Don't Skip Me, The Pride, Golden Link and a couple of two-year-olds from San Francisco to Memphis.
From which it is plain he did not sell Dunois,
and that this horse with only 100 pounds to carry will be hard to beat for the Montgomery Handicap if the long trip does not impair his speed.

The first foal ever dropped at the New Orleans Fair grounds was born Thursday morning when the mare Ethel Lee, owned by Rufus Bush, foaled a bay colt by Midstar. The youngster attracted considerable attention.

The three-year-old Compensation, by Tournament-Citronella, is developing into a fine horse, and is by far the most bloodlike of his sire's get.

Time, 2:51, 52, 1:18, 1:43.

Winner—Ch. c. by Apache—Marin II.

Start good. Won in a hard drive. It was a two horse race from the turn. Toribio was best ridden and lucky in getting to the front early. Jennie Reid was the best. She was far from well managed and was closing fast at end. Bonnie Ione ran her race. So did Himera. Winifred had no speed. Gilberto likes deep mud and was messed about a lot.

Scratched—10849 Widow Jones, 104; 10844 Elsin, 91.

Toribio, place, 9 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Jennie Reid, place, 4 to 5. Bonnie Ione, show, 7 to 10.

Time, 4:05.

Winner—B. g. by St. Carlo—Royal Bess.

Start good. Won in a gallop. Hard drive for second place. Our Climate prefers distance off through the field. The long course does not suit him. He had speed, jumped well and was lucky to-day. Is good. Vanity ran a good race. He is improving as he goes along. Reno ran below the mark. Messed his jumps at the end. He is good. Huntsman seems to be best at the full course. Jezebel was short. Tab her. She is nearly ready. Three Forks is best at hurdles. J. O. C. and Monita are both in bad form.

Our Climate, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Vanity, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1.

Time, 1:24, 24, 36, 49.

Winner—Br. f. by Apache—Play Toy.

Start good. Won very easily. Drive for the place. Kittie Kelly revels in such going as to-day's. She has a rare flash of speed. It took her to the front and made her own luck. St. Anthony ran to the mark. He is an honest colt and a stayer. Yellow Tail is not extra stout of heart and does not fancy anything but a hard fast track. Garbo showed some speed. Kickumbob was hardly bridled.

Kittie Kelly, place, 3 to 5. St. Anthony, place, 4 to 5.

Winner—Ch. g. by Judge Murray—Spinster.

Start good. Won pulling up. The Bachelor outclassed his opponents and won without exertion. He loomed along behind Morinel to the head of the stretch and then took command and came home under restraint. Morinel ran a good, honest race. Charley Reiff ran for third money and won it without an effort.

Scratched—10732 Buckwa, 119; 10851 Lady Hurst, 106.

Time, 2:41, 51, 1:17, 1:42.

Winner—Ch. h. by Riley—Hattie Harris.

Start good. Won all out. Joe Ullman got away in the lead and held it all through, but had to do his best at the finish to stall off Opponent. The latter was unlucky in being cut off and thrown back on the first turn, but for which he might have won. Cromwell ran a fair race but might have been closer up. Hardly showed some speed for a half and then fell away. Her race was a bad one. Frank Jaubert is good and finished well. Throw out Racivan's race. He can do better.

Scratched—(10850) Roadrunner, 109.

Overweights—Tom Calvert, 4 pounds.

Joe Ullman, place, 1 to 2. Opponent, place, evens; show, 1 to 2. Cromwell, show, 1 to 2.

Winner—Ch. c. by Conveth—Formosa.

Start straggling. Won driving. Formero stood a long drive with great courage and proved himself a good one. He was off badly and none too skillfully ridden. Spreckles is in fine form and finished with speed and courage. Dr. Sheppard ran a good race but could not concede the weight he was set to give the others. Joe Mussel ran his race.

Scratched—10848 Fleur de Lis, 105; (10844) Cromwell, 103.

Formero, place, 1 to 2.

Gold Fox ran a good race. Elmer S. quit in the stretch. Rose Apple stumbled at the start and went to her knees. But for this she would have been closer up.

Corrected weights—Gold Fox, 101.
